

The establishment of the Husseini family in Tunisia (1705) and the Qarmanian in Tripoli (1711) , gave both Tunisia and Tripoli shape of the personality of the nation – state in the modern sense with nominative name under the framework of the Ottoman state , The political and administrative situation was less than independence at that time. It was run by two local national governments , their political , administrative and military establishment were local and Arabic was their official language alongside Turkish .

A thesis , consists of introduction , four chapters and conclusion , each chapter involved two sections . The chapter one involved to study the political situations in Tunisia and the Tripoli before and after the Spanish occupation ,the section one explained the situation of Tunisia and Tripoli during the Spanish occupation while the section two explained the Ottoman control over Tunisian and Tripoli . The chapter two involved the relations Tunisia-Tripoli during the period of local governments and the situation of the Ottoman government and Europeans from (1759-1711) . The Section one explained the Husseini family control over, Tunisia (1705) and the Qarmanian family on Tripoli (1711), while the section two explained the French situation from the political of AL .Hussein bin Ali and Ali basha in Tunisia , and the political of Mohammed AL.Qarmanianly in Tripoli.

The chapter three involved the political developments (1795 - 1759) . the section one explained the studying of the developments in both Tunisia and Tripoli while the section two involved the control Ali Bourghil on Tripoli (1795- 1792).

The chapter four involved the relations . Tunisia Tripoli (1835-1795) the section one explained the relations between yousif Qarmanianly and bayats of Tunisia , while the section two involved the events of civition war in Tripoli (1835-1832) .

The conclusion involved the mian results of the study that the historieal events contributed in the erlations between Tunisia and Tripoli.

As for the relations Tunisia – Tripoli were involved interconnection bonds between them clearly.