

This study which called (The Context semantic of Plurality grammatically in the Quran) in the impact because the repeating by coming the grammar rule after the other in the Quranic context or meeting the grammatical function of various rules grammatically but agreeing functionally which is in the preamble and three chapters and a conclusion .

The preamble deals with roots of the plurality grammatically through scientist of the grammar and it showed that they did not pay attention to the plurality grammatically but they took only simple signs about the plurality grammatically and it showed the terms grammatically that the same meaning for plurality Grammatically that it used by grammarians to refer to the phenomenon of the plurality grammatically.

The first chapter entitled (multiple letters meaning) that it involved five subjects. The first subject involved the multiple letters of question which resulted from their multiple through descriptive Quranic when Quran blamed the idolaters , and also the subject involved multiple rule of the grammatical with meaning grammatical. The second subject involved multiple letters of the assertion. The third subject involved multiple prepositions and how they came multiple in Quranic text and out from real meaning of metaphor meaning for purposes real semantically. The four subject involved the multiple conjunction in the Quran and it also showed how the multiple conjunction letters in the context Quranic and the role semantic that produced from multiple these letters with (scientific meaning). The five subject involved multiple letters of negative in it function grammatical.

The second chapter was entitled (multip subject and predicate to it) It was in tow subject: the first in volved the study the verb that it has tow kinds: multiple of verb, the subject seconded: multiple the predicate and another subject, it was involved predicate and multiple subject in the Arabic.

The third chapter which called: (multiple the complements of the sentence) it was involved six subject. The first subject involved the study the multiple specification in Quran. The second subject involved the multiple the adverb of manner in Arabic Language. The third subject involved the exception. The four subject involved the multiple object. The five subject deals with multiple the another kind of object. The six subject deals with multiple the adjective.

The came at the end after the third and chapters it involved the following the resulting:

(A) The letters of the conjunction role in establishment the phenomenon of the multiple grammatically.

(B) If the letters of meaning carry out many of meaning.

(C) Multiple the subject in Quran by conjunction only.

Researcher

Nuha Ibraheem Hrejah AL-Edhmawy